

BAY COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM CHILDREN'S USE OF THE LIBRARY POLICY

The Bay County Library System strives to maintain a safe environment conducive to the welfare of all users of its facilities. Library staff is not responsible for providing supervision or care of children. The parent, legal guardian, or caregiver is responsible for monitoring the activities and regulating the behavior of children.

Children will not be denied access to the adult collections merely because they are juveniles. Library staff members will try to direct children to age-appropriate materials, but the final selection of materials is the responsibility of the parent, legal guardian, or caregiver.

All children age 7 or younger must be attended and adequately supervised by a responsible adult or adolescent of 14 years or older. Children from the age of 8 and older may use the library unattended subject to the rules and regulations of the Bay County Library System.

Children ages 4 – 7 may attend library sponsored programs independently, however, a parent, legal guardian, or caregiver must remain in the library throughout the program.

If children age 8 or older are not using the library for any of its intended purposes, or are violating library rules and regulations, they will be asked to leave. If this should occur, and the children cannot return home for any reason, the library reserves the right to contact the police.

Any unattended child age 7 or younger should be reunited by staff with the parent, legal guardian, or caregiver. Walk around the library with the child, look for the person who is responsible for the child, and reunite them. If you are unable to locate a parent, legal guardian, or caregiver after walking around with the child, page him or her using their name, if known. If you cannot determine the name of the parent, legal guardian, or caregiver, describe the child's appearance. When the parent or caregiver is located, politely and discreetly remind him or her that it is not the responsibility of library staff to care for the child. If the parent, legal guardian, or caregiver is not found in the building, a staff member should stay with the child in a public area while an attempt is made to make contact via telephone. Inform him or her of the library's concern for the child's safety, and request they pick up the child. If he or she cannot be located call 911 and report it to the police.

At 20 minutes before closing time staff should do a walk around and identify children who are in need of a ride home. Staff should make attempts to contact a parent, legal guardian, or caregiver who can come and give the child a ride home. If no contact is made by 10 minutes after closing time call 911 and ask the police to come and pick up the child. Two staff members should stay in the building with the child until the police arrive.

Any time the police are called a BCLS Patron Conduct Report form should be completed, reviewed by the Managing Librarian, and forwarded to the administrative office.
